

Deutsche Gesellschaft
für Hauswirtschaft e.V.

IFHE
INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION
FOR HOME ECONOMICS

“Building Resilient Homes and Families” Competition: Seeking Examples of Good Practice

The German section of the International Federation for Home Economics (IFHE)¹ is launching a competition to mark World Home Economics Day² 2022. Eligibility: individuals, institutions, organisations or associations, as well as educational establishments for all age groups, that run projects related to home economics skills, thereby strengthening the resilience of families and households.

Key facts at a glance

Application:

In German or English using the application form plus additional materials (e.g. links, photographs, videos)

Closing date:

31 January, 2022

Prizes:

1st and 2nd places: payment of conference fees for one person to attend the 2022 Home Economics Congress at Herrenhausen Palace in Hanover.

Digital visibility for the best practical examples through social media channels with nationwide and international reach, as well as book vouchers.

For further information and an application form, please visit here.

¹ The International Federation for Home Economics (IFHE) is a globally recognised non-governmental organisation with consultative status with the United Nations. Founded in Switzerland in 1908, it is the only global organisation which addresses home economics, household science and consumer science issues. The German Section of the IFHE is the International Advisory Board of the “Deutsche Gesellschaft für Hauswirtschaft” (German Society for Home Economics).

² World Home Economics Day is an initiative of the International Federation for Home Economics (IFHE) and has been celebrated since 1982.